DEAR ASSASIN OF YOUTH:

Your magazine is great!

I work in a pizza restaurant. My job is to drive around all night in a truck and deliver pizza to people who are too lazy, paranoid, or stoned to leave their houses.

It ain't such a bad job. It keeps me on the road alot, and my boss gives me little black pills to help me stay awake. I meet alot of interesting people, too. One night I delivered a pizza to Brooke Shields! She looked just like herself, eyebrows and all! I told her she was great in PERSONAL BEST and she slammed the door in my face. Fuck you, Brooke.

Anyway, the reason I'm writing is because I know where Goobie is. When I saw his picture in the last issue of Assasin of Youth I recognized the poor little bastard immediately.

The information the FBI has is correct. Little Goob has been captured by the Middle Enemy. I know this for a fact because I delivered pizza to the house where little Goob is being held prisoner.

I felt sorry for the pathetic little peckerhead. They keep him tied up 24 hours a day. They got a pair of headphones strapped to his head, so I couldn't hear the music, but I saw a pile of Kansas, Foreigner, REO Speedwagon, and Linda Ronstadt albums on the floor. Fucking cruel and unusual punishment, if you ask me.

Now I'm a pretty tough guy. I was in Nam, and one day I found my sargeant hanging upside down from a tree with his balls in his mouth. Nothing shocks me anymore, understand? But when I saw the Middle Enemy drag in a box full of bootleg Twisted Sister, Monroe, and Young Turks tapes, I wanted to puke my intestines out.

Maybe it was the black pills. I don't know. But for a minute I thought I was actually back in Saigon. Swear to God, if I'd had a rifle on me I would have blown those long-haired, dead-headed, faggot-assed bastards into ralburger.

Fuck, I don't need no rifle. The army trained me to kill a man with only the thumb and forefinger of my left hand.

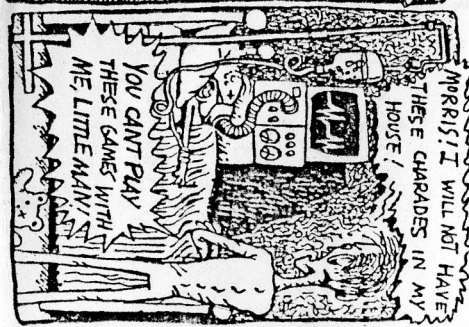

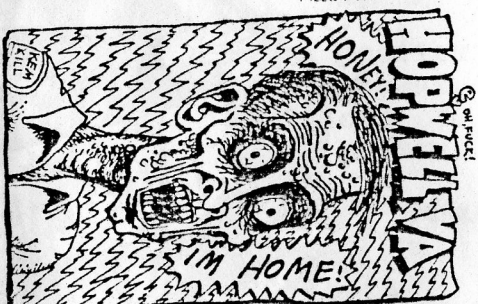

I must've blacked out. When my brain cleared, I looked around and saw five longhaired Middle Enemies lying on the floor in a pool of spinal fluid. "Okay, Goob!" I shouted. "The kidnappers are snuffed! Your ass is saved! You can go home now!" And guess what? Goob said "Go to hell! I'm busy listening to my favorite group, REO Speedwagon!"

Didja ever see that John Wayne movie, THE SEARCHERS? John Ford directed it, I think. Anyway, Wayne plays some fascist cowboy dude whose friends are killed by Indians. Their 13 year old pubescent daughter (Natalie Wood) is kidnapped by the horny savages, and Wayne vows to find her and save her ass. Years go by as he searches and searches. Finally, when he finds the little bitch, she's been assimilated into the Injun culture, and tells him to fuck off. "I'm a squaw now, Wayne," she says. "I'm shacking up with Chief Longfeather, and for once in my life I feel like a real woman." So Wayne decides to kill her. He says it's better to be dead than red. (He also says "that'll be the day" alot, which inspired a young, four-eyed rockabilly named Buddy Holly to write his first big song.)

Anyway, do you get the connection between Natalie Wood and Goobie? Should I kill the brainwashed little asslicker, and put him out of our misery? Or should I let the crawling shit live? I believe in fucking democracy. Let the readers decide. Vote thumbs down, and I'll snap his neck like a chicken bone. Vote thumbs up, and I'll spank his ass and send him on his way. Goobie's life is in your hands. SO HURRY UP! My brain is clouding over again, and Goobie's looking more and more Vietnamese to me by the minute.

Love,
Pizza Pete

Thank for the quick delivery of A.O.V. I'm reading it right now. It's a real gem. I'm the shored. The punk scene here sucks. The Past Lane, a.k.a. Hixville South, is the only place to go. Bad Brains is supposed to go there soon. (How the hell are they disappearing?) Hey, I saw them at Reg. Lounge top-flight hardcore/punk is to catch the NJ transit into N.Y.C. The last time I was in the city was May this year to see the Gun Club at CBGB. Even though they're not as hardcore as I've heard of them, they still are one of my favorites. Favorite band: Dead Kennedys...When are they coming to N.Y.C.? Best Single: Pay To Cum-Bad Brains...Why are they going reggae? Fuck! I'm not sure about the reggae thing and it's got to be the worst issue I've ever read. (If ya need the 50¢, I'll enclose it in my next letter)

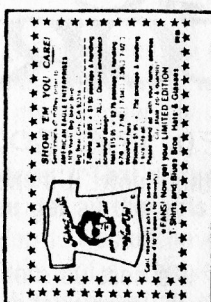

The closest the Little Silver area came to punk was when two top bands emerged. I'd. Sinsinnetri isn't really punk and fits more into New Wave/Pop (I hate that goddam expression!) I'm trying to assert the punk label around here. "Bad Brains", "DK's", "Agent Orange" etc...covers numerous books and walls.

Dear Viktum,
Bill I read your letter in Phenix fanzine so I thought I'd write. It's a punk from New Zealand, and I import lots of records all the time from the UK and just recently got a really good one, UK band. Brains & many other bands like Effigies, Minor Threat, S.O.A., Red Acker, Circle Jerks, I.S.O.C., Adolescents, Angry Samoans & others, all who I think are great. U.S. punk seems to be getting really good now and I've read about New York punk in Sounds and it sounds really good. Some of the bands I've read about are: Black Flag, Violators, Effigies, Vice Squad, Elit, Conflict, The Mob, D.I.R.T., Charise, Flux of Pink Indians, & lots more. I hope you'll write back soon with a copy of your zine. Thank.
All the best,

IN A VAN BEING LOADED FOR BOSTON...

DECCA: ...so we're going to drive up there now. It's cheaper than flying, save more money for a drink...and drugs.

AOY: How much did you guys make?

DECCA: We're not making anything. It's cost us money...when we tour in England, right...we make money, but to come to the States it's costing us money.....

MENSI: Hi men!

(MENSI has come in the van at this time, with a blonde to boot, and disrupts our interview.....)

AOY: Any obscene comments?

MENSI: Fuck the Falklands!

DECCA: (Agrees)...that's it!

MENSI: (Takes the recorder and interviews us!) I'd just like to ask you, why do you come to gigs?

AOY: To see the band...

MENSI: What do you think when the band's onstage? Do you think that the singer of the ANGELIC UPSTARTS is really sexy?

AOY: He's not ugly, that's for sure...

MENSI: OH YES, WELL, OH!!! Well can you tell the viewers here tonight what do you think of his charming physique...Is it really true that women scream and throw their knickers at him?

DECCA: YES!

TONY: It's a shame, he's mentally disturbed...

(Due to their thick accents, we cannot pin the blame on exactly why MENSI is sick in the head...something about a motor crash he's had.)

MENSI screaming, ranting and raving outside the van...

TONY: ...he's never been the same since...

DECCA: ...he had a motorbed (?) crash and he had a bang on the head and he's fancied men ever since...

AOY: You had a new song tonite...

DECCA: POLITICIANS. Quite an old song really...

AOY: How did you like playing here (Left Bank, Mt. Vernon, NY) tonite?

DECCA: Great. I've come six thousand miles, it's cost me money, it's cost everyone in the band money, right? It's cost about twenty thousand pounds to put this tour on, not dollars, pounds. It's fuckin' great when you come all this way, and you get a reception like that.

MENSI: (Imitating an American accent) I think American girls are dirtier than English girls....

MARTIN: Noooooo...

AOY: I would like to have a serious interview but I guess this isn't going to be one of those...

MENSI: Listen, there's alot of jealousy in the band; concerning my looks...the band is jealous of my looks. ...they know who the good lookin' one is, and they fuckin' just live under my shadow all the time, they're just really, really jealous.

The boys in the band agree: "That's true, That's true..."

AOY: Mensi, why do you get all the girls?

MENSI: NO, I don't. I don't. I could have them, but I don't want them. The thing was, right, there was alot of trouble in the band, I nearly got the sack, because they found out I was bisexual, and I was goin' with boys...

AOY: What about your new album?

DECCA: We're recording it now. We were recording it before we came out here. It's alright, it's pretty good. It will be out in Britain in September. What we've got to do now is, back in England, tell them, like, how good America is, try and change their ideas.

AOY: There are too many misconceptions, people shouldn't be divided.

DECCA: That's it. United we stand, divided we fall. Just take the words from kids on the street...all you kids, black and white,...that's what it's all about. Black, pink, green, fuckin' yellow or white...

THE BIGGEST IMPRESSION ON ME. IT'S ONE OF THOSE EERIE SLOW SONGS THAT SUDDENLY BURSTS INTO 60 MILE AN HOUR CHORDS. THE OTHER 4 SONGS ON THIS 8 SONG CASSETTE WERE RECORDED LIVE FROM THE A7 CLUB ON THEIR 1ST TRIP TO NEW YORK SINCE THE RELEASE OF "THIS IS BOSTON, NOT L.A." (ON WHICH THEY HAVE 4 CUTS - ED) THE LIVE TRACKS FEATURE THEIR INFAMOUS SKANK SONG "DIE FOR GOD" AND THE 12 INCH VERSION OF "GREEN BERET" AT THE PRESENT TIME THE F.U.'S ARE SERVING 10-YEAR SENTENCES FOR ASSAULTING RONALD McDONALD WITH A LETHAL CUP OF SODA, BUT THEY'LL BE OUT ON BAIL SOON AND BACK IN 'N.Y. ## New Joisey Update BY DAVE SCOTT

I don't know how it happened, but it looks like I've become a staff writer for Assassin Of Youth. Well it's alright by me; at least now I can get my major point across. New Jersey DOES have a scene!!! Not just a bunch of trendy new wavers coming out of the closet and wearing a armband. I'm talking about honest, dedicated, sincere, Hardcore Suburbanites. And in the midst of them comes bands; original, humorous, and pretty damn fast bands. Here's an introduction to the Jersey Hardcore Scene and Scene Makers:

Adrenalin O.D.

Paul Richard-Vocals
Jack Steeples-Bass

Jim Foster-Guitar
Dave Scott-Drums

AOD are the founders, and are the most popular of the pack, having started in early October. Even though 8 months may seem like nothing they have had a long list of accomplishments. 5 songs were played on the Tim Sommer's Noise Show. They have 2 cuts on the New York Thrash cassette on ROIR Cassettes. They will have two more cuts on the Bad Brains Double Compilation Album and are working on a late summer release for their upcoming EP. They have played almost every club in the area including a headlining show at New York's Peppermint Lounge and an intense show with the Bad Brains at Hitsville. Their play-for-fun policy is the theme of the New Jersey scene and their humorous songs like Highjack the Senior Citizens' Bus and Mr.Rogers is a Child Molester are a breath of fresh air from the cliched Anarchy and Destroy songs. In July, they will be leaving for Boston to play a big Independence Day show(postponed to late July-ed.)

No Democracy

Pete-Vocals
Ritchie-Bass

Repete-Guitar
Ron-Drums

The second band to play the big apple is No Democracy, a hell of a fun band to watch. Their songs hit the peak of sickness with pick hits like Anti-Beatles, Necrophilia, and Fingerfuck. They played the first hardcore shows at Aldo's Hideaway and the King of Hearts. The key to this band is their youthful energy and carefree attitude. They have had some really good shows at New York's A-7 Club also. The word is that they might accompany AOD to Boston. Don't Mistake the name either they are not a political band, they just want to be heard. Watch out for them in the future.

Mourning Noise

Mike-Vocals

Tommy-Guitar

Chris Draphobia-Bass

Steve Zing-Drums

As far as talent goes this band is definitely the epitome. Mike's vocal ability is limitless. It's like listening to Frank Sinatra gone hardcore. Because they are avid Misfit fans, when they started the music seemed to cling to their style making them good but unoriginal. Now they seem to know exactly where they are going. I recently heard two new songs by them and believe me they're great. Steve Zing's drumming is incredibly fast and powerful.

Tommy even manages to get a small lead in, and Chris's bass keeps a steady pace of blurred finger speed.

Talk about coincidences, as I am writing this they are playing their song Monster Madness on the Noise Show. If you like the song you can get it soon on Bob Moore's Meathouse Cassette

Suburbicide

Raven X-Vocals

Ed-Guitar

Nancy-Bass

It's very hard to write about this band because they never had any firm roots. At one time or another a representative from almost every band in New Jersey has played with them. The line up on the top has even to date changed leaving them with just Raven, Ed, and Nancy. Here comes the favor time:

They are in desperate need of a drummer so if you can play very fast and don't mind the smell of Raven's bulldog, Maggie Thatcher then call Raven at (201) 478-8762. They have just finished recording for Bob Moore's Meathouse Cassette and it is really fast. (Keep on the lookout for this band, I've heard them in the studio and they'll blow you away!-ed)

Green Shirts Suck

Harpo-Vocals

Jason-Guitar and Scarf

Scott-Drums

I haven't heard too much about this band lately. They still need a bass player. From what I hear they are fast with a capital F. Harpo (you all know him—he's the kid that never has money to see a show, and stays outside and grubs for change) is trying real hard to get together a New Jersey Compilation Album, in association with Tips and Tours magazine. Sounds good, keep pushing the idea.

Other New Jersey Bands worth Mentioning are: Autistic Behavior, Use of Force, Gross Misconduct, Radicals, and The Outgroup. Please all New Jersey Hardcore bands, we want to know about you. Send your tapes to Assassin Of Youth, PO Box 261, Rochelle Park, NJ 07662 and Dave Scott 25 Grant Ave. Clifton, NJ 07011.

ALPHA! Hope you real like this new issue...no much has happened since our last one that I really don't want to miss. First, I'd like to start with a sincere get well soon to Jerry Oniz. Back in May, MISFITS. Jerry was in a car accident July 30; had to be cut out and was...and was listed in critical condition. While we're on the subject of Oniz, BLACK JACK drummer is rumored to be their new drummer...since he was seen around Lodi, NJ...it's true...and while we're on the subject of Black Flag, rumor goes that Emilio no longer their drummer and Chuck Blacouts of D.O.A. is the new B.F. drummer. Was REAGAN YOUTH have found a guitarist and will be playing around town. CRUICK TRUTH is doing a tour with dates ranging from Gary & Skip's native Florida to Texas. Then there's...UNDEAD's Bobby Steele is in the hospital once again...good luck kiddo...and...HUSH's new line-up includes ex-NOISE SHOW host Tim Sommer on bass; "chiz" Liz "I fired 'for going into 10 minutes overtime on his anniversary show"...new half with Bal...BAD BRAINS show on MTV is called "Is There Life After Death?"...with Bal...BAD BRAINS...all-reggae...A7, NY's hard core only club the size of your living room...on weekends and yours guaranteed up to 8 bands, ya dunno how, unless ya see it...fliers posted...has moved to 2+2...I hear it's like a cave.....oh, here's all info you read in Dave's report is false!!! Actually, it's old hats'...A.O.D. opened for the DEAD KENNEDYS July 18 down in Trenton...got a fantastic response...NO DEMOCRACY's careful attitude was got the best of these cause they broke up! Ritchie left to join MOURNING NOBIS. Ron left to join SUBURBICIDE. Pete to join up with ex-studio-Suburbs. The new start up band SCARED STRAIGHT. They need a guitarist & a drummer...anyone interested? Next to react to John on vocals, Ed & Doug left. Ron joined, so ignore the request for a drummer...since then, they've played their first-ever gig at Aldo's...they were real tight and got a great response...That's about it for the news...here's the rundown on the hardcore scene. The last time the retro area at the time our last issue was out, the only place to go to get hardcore was at Aldo's. It had a month of hardcore Tuesdays we were all pretty glad to hear about it. BAD BRAINS and ADRENALIN O.D. played first...it was pretty fucked...the bad brains was mind blowing...but when bouncers decided to get on stage in jumped on one's bad brains' set to discourage divers. H.R. had enough and were united: the roar of approval and the power of music...the management sitting in their pants! H.R. later dedicated "I Wanna Be a Babylon" to all the kids that couldn't get in and left me speechless when kids around the area...BILLY MCDONALD & SACCHARINE TRUTH gig went over well...kids piled on stage surrounding the band with hugs and comments for "Louie Louie" & F. ended their set with everyone's place...the bouncers are nazis...they let kids get an apartment together and blow bones..."...I was a pisser...I took tons of pictures for you guys, but my film got ruined...T.S.O.L. went up next...CIRCLE JERKS were the last band to play Hittville; here's what we heard...Morris had to say about that gig: "For the last four weeks, they've had hardcore shows at Hittville. They've had T.S.O.L., Black Flag, the Bad Brains. Tonight we played, and they said, "No more hardcore." So their loss is our gain. I guess the managers of the club, the first thing he said was, "The band doesn't want you jumping on stage; that's why we're here in front of the stage." which is...the bouncers got our own bouncer on stage, if it gets too out of hand they know what to do. There's enough bouncers in here to beat everybody up in this place. They look like they couldn't make the New York Giants...bouncers are fucked to so far. But the place...I...our playing was the best that we've done so far. The place...I...the bouncers are nazis. While I was on stage I had FUN. But everything leading up to playing, it was FUCKED!...yeah, it definitely was. What signalled the end of hardcore Tuesdays was when a girl dived off stage onto someone's pretty, shiny spike bracelet and got all bloodied up and had to be taken to a hospital to get her stitches...think twice before you wear those things to a gig. kids, o.s.t...At Aldo's place the time...ADRENALIN O.D., which had a hardcore d.j.'s & good times since December, started...the same week as Hittville...NO DEMOCRACY had the honor of being the first hardcore band to play on Nov. 27, followed by the RADICALS...whose future is kinda uncertain as of now...the radicals were the house band at the King of Kings for a month...hardcore Sundays...NY's HEART ATTACK played there one night...vowing never to return...out of the 19 proof age and a lifeless audience...CBGB's opened it's doors...for the T.N.ours 'zine with NO DEMOCRACY, EAST PATENSON BOY'S CHOIR reunion (E. P. B. # CRUCIAL TRUTH

ASSASSIN OF YOUTH: Derek was telling me that you got your old guitarist back.

GARY: He left the band awhile ago and went back to Florida, and like lost his head for awhile, and phoned me up last week and wanted to play with me again.

AOY: What did you do with your old guitarist?

GARY: We got rid of him, for reasons of I think Skippy has got alot more feeling towards what the music's about; the old guitarist was just kinda hooked up to the band 'cos I was trying to keep it alive, so I needed someone to play with; he became involved in the scene and everything, but I had to make a decision 'cos we didn't want to play with two guitar players; I write songs with this guy. I've been together with him for years...he's an intense guitar player.

AOY: You're not from Florida?

GARY: I was born in Toronto, but I'm from Florida; I came up here like three months ago.

AOY: So what happened down there? You started out as the Throbs. When was that?

GARY: In 1980. January through...wait a minute, what year is this? '81?

DEREK: '82.

GARY: Ha ha ha ha ha! God, that long ago!? We were playing alot of powerpop bullshit.....

AOY: Did ya have hair then?

GARY: Ha ha, yeah. I had hair...ha ha ha...the scene in Florida was just conducive to stuff like that....didn't know anything about fast music, hard music, we were doing a tour, and saw Minor Threat in Washington Youth Brigade, GI's; I just went back, dropped all the love songs, started writing hate songs, the Bad Brains influenced alot, just from hearing them. Then....we came up here.

AOY: You came up here three months ago...were you the Throbs all that time?

GARY: We were the Throbs up until five months ago. We stayed in North Carolina for two months, which is the biggest bullshit that I've ever done in my life. We stayed there 'cos our bassplayer at the time had a house there. That house turned into a Rasta farm or something, I'm not sure.

AOY: All the material you're playing now, how long have you had that? Is that all Throbs material?

GARY: No, just the first song that me and Skip wrote. FUCK THE DRAFT, that was years ago...BURNT OUT GENERATION; it's a satirical song, it's through the eyes of corporate assholes...

AOY: It's not about doped-out kids?

GARY: No, No, No, it's just saying how everything is so easy, like the whole civilization warp that's going on now. The way money rules everything.

AOY: Offbeat question: Why did you shave off your mohawk/mohican?

GARY: Just for a change. I got sick of it. I like being a skinhead, anyway. Ask Derek a question now.

AOY: Where are you from, Derek?

DEREK: I'm from Roslyn, Longvale.

GARY: HA ha ha ha ha, he's from Long Island. Yeah, print that for sure.

DEREK: It's like the lamest place in the whole world. I'll take you there. I've never not convinced somebody after taking them out there. I've lived there eighteen years, it's fucked.

AOY: Gary, how do you like living in New York now?

GARY: That's a good question. I love living in New York. It's no comparison to anything else in the world. Florida is like Long Island. New York is weird, it's like really paranoid and shit, compared to other cities I've been to. That's part of the thing I like about it. It's scary, and the very eminence of danger is always around, and it's fucked. That's why I like it, I guess. You just like breath off it, in a way, if you're into this kind of music. We were in North Carolina for two months, and there's nothing to inspire me to get pissed, it was so lame...you could read the news but you felt like you were on the other side of the planet. The most action you get was some rednecks cussing at you, or throwing beer cans at you out of the back of a four wheel drive truck. I didn't write any songs; I wrote part of one song. I came to New York and I've written about ten.

DEREK: We've been together two months as a unit, and then this guitar player joined us yesterday, he just flew up here Tuesday...me and him and Glorp have been playing together three days, so whatever you heard tonight sure sounds alot better...I'm kinda concerned with up here, our scene might look OK, like you go to the Irving Plaza (FOR PEOPLE NOT FAMILIAR WITH THE IRVING PLAZA, IT'S A BIG HALL THAT'S BEEN HAVING HARDCORE GIGS RECENTLY, WITH 500 PLUS PEOPLE SHOWING UP...ED) these people, you play on a weeknight and you never see them anywhere...half of them are poseurs, and the other half come to beat up each other on the dance floor...now it's alot less people hanging out than last summer, 'cos kids are getting tired of dressing up just out of being lazy, they don't want to dress up like hardcore anymore. I know for a fact alot of people label hardcore...

GARY: Fuck the label, we don't want to be associated with a label at all!

DEREK: ...anybody can shave their head and they think they're cool, the whole scene is turning into an acceptance thing, and all these bands like "we're hardcore, wow...like we can get accepted", and people think they're cool, ya know, the whole status quo thing now. I hate it. They fuck up our scene, we want it cool, to the thing where we can play in New York and have a good time, people show up, there won't be fights...

GARY: I think out of this whole city...I don't know everybody 'cos I haven't been here that long, but I know ten people, if I see them at a gig. I don't care if anybody else is there at all. I'd like to see some sort of a consciousness raise, I don't want to see people just shaving their heads and punching each other. It's more to it than that. I know alot of people who don't even dance, but they're still good people...I hate to use the word, but it's a certain hipness involved...that you just don't see with these people with this shit on the back of their jackets. That is such a deadness to me, all these leather jackets and shit on them...it's so dead...These people are still breaking bottles in the street...most of the people I've seen that got out of the punk rock bullshit are progressing to something more strong...

DEREK: Hardcore, here now, is turning into a dress code thing. It's turning into fuckin' fashion, like all these people show up with new shiny black leather army boots...we really try to teach them on the dance floor, we say, look, you're a fucking sucker...like when they try to hurt people...

GARY: It's not just dancing, but hanging out with these people. I'm 23, and I see alot of these kids around here that are young, alot of them are between 14 and 17, which is great that they're into something good, but if it's blind idolization, "I want to be a skinhead", then it's fucked. Usually, when I'm talking to the kids, I try to set an example...

DEREK: Yeah, but if you set an example, they'll dress like you...

GARY: Yeah, I don't want to set an example for anyone to follow, it's just that I've seen most of them in a pretty dismal trip...

...SOMEONE ACROSS THE STREET BREAKS A BOTTLE...SOUND OF SHATTERED GLASS...

GARY: There goes a punk rocker...(Gary recites the scene for the tape) Leather jacket walks by, smashes beer bottle, and snarls his way into A7: "I'm on the guest list, for Ultra Violence".

DEREK: As far as New York, you'd think it'd be big, but it's not, really, there's a small circle of fifty people all pretty much know each other, or at least ten other people; that's pretty much what the scene so to speak is now...when the Bad Brains were around, everybody would pack the place...

GARY: I just want to see more people into it; I might cry about that for the rest of my life, so I've gotten used to it. That's why I love the scene; the people I know here, and the friends I've met and the people that come up to the show, and you know who means it. There's not too many scenes like that anywhere. New York definitely ranks.

DEREK: It's too small, though, there's no place to play.

GARY: Yeah, it's getting a little bit desperate. It does get back to the point of, if there's not enough people into it, you can't survive, if I depended on this, then I wouldn't even be able to buy strings. Definitely wouldn't be able to eat, fuck rent!

PICS BY LINGUINIE - ELKS CENTER - PHILLY

AOY: Gary, do you write all the words? Who writes the music?

GARY: I wrote about half or three quarters of the songs...Derek is starting to write, and Skip and I write together...he writes about half or a quarter...I have been doing it lately, since he hasn't been around, I've been writing all the songs...but I write all the words, even if they write the words, I revise them or change them so I can live with them. I don't want to speak exactly what somebody else is saying, it's just really factual, not an opinion...so I don't mind singing them...

AOY: What are your songs about?

GARY: They're about...well, it ranges, I guess...about...LIFE! Ha ha ha...About people's problems, people's ups and downs, oppression; that's an easy one to write about...it's my chance to say something, it's the only way I have...they're about everything that happens to ME. Everything from cops to being drafted, or being pissed off at somebody that showed their rear end to you in the long run....things that SUCK! Things that bite the dick I like to write about.

AOY: Are you planning to put out a single, or tour?

GARY: Yeah, we're gonna put out a record, but I've been saying this for so long, maybe real soon, maybe in a few weeks, if not, two months. And we're looking at an East Coast tour, in about six weeks from now, from Boston down to Florida.

AOY: Any last comments?

GARY: For one thing, don't ask me for our bass player's number. It's unlisted.

DEREK: Yeah, all these girls are always hassling me.

GARY: He gets interview calls every hour...so we just want to keep that quiet...the guest lists are too small, sometimes, I have to turn mine over to his, people compare him to David Lee Roth...

DEREK: I try to hide so I don't steal the show...

GARY: You notice he lays back alot and lets me do some stuff once in a while...

DEREK: You've seen our roadie pushing girls away...

GARY: Yeah, did you notice that? There was one girl showing her tits...she was right beside Derek...what else do we want to say, man? Wanna say hi to your mom?

DEREK: Hi Mom!

GARY: Yeah, hi Mom! Where's the camera? Uh, hi to Mom, my little brother; my little brother's 11 years old, and his favorite band's Minor Threat. Say hi to him; Grant. He's got a band in Florida, I think they're called the Dirty Canals. It's like a pollution band. No instruments. They're like accapella hardcore. They're playing gigs in front yards and stuff, it's really weird. We'd like to see this interview so our lawyers can edit it.

AOY: We need your bass player's number for that.

GARY: What? We can't do that. I'll give you my number. (Gives his phone number and address)

AOY: What's your zip?

GARY: It's about half way...(looks down)
